DATE :

1. The following are reported to be the names of members of the Polish Commercial Mission in Argentina at present:

F. NOLACKI
NEUWIRSKI
BAJER
CZERWICHOWSKA
JAKUBOWICZ
KRUMER
KOWARSKI
KRACZYCKI
SOLARSKI
WISLOCKI

These men are representatives of the Warsaw Ministry of Commerce and Industry.

2. It is reported that some of these persons will soon go to Rio de Janeiro to negotiate trade agreements with the Brazilian Government and to make arrangements whereby Poland will exchange cement, coal, rails and textiles for Brazilian coffee, food stuffs, iron ore and copper. It is understood that the head of the mission is one Stanislaw BREITER who has been in Buenos Aires since August 1946 and who will probably accompany part of the mission to Rio de Janeiro.

3. It is reported that aside from negotiating commercial agreements in Argentina, one of the purposes of the commercial mission is to lay the groundwork for establishing a Polish Legation in Argentina. A First Secretary of [redacted] is reported to have stated that Peron is not favorably disposed toward the establishment of new missions of Russian satellite states in Argentina. 25X1
